

PCYA Technology Training Day
Wednesday, January 19, 2022
CCAP Office, 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Agenda

8:30 – 9 a.m. Registration

9 a.m. – noon Working with Youth in a Digital World (2.5 Substantive CLEs)

Professionals working with youth are invited to join us as we team up with Licensed Professional Counselor and Nationally Certified Counselor Ryan Klingensmith, who is the founder of Shape the Sky, an organization dedicated to Creating Responsible Kids on Smartphones. Through parent, professional, and youth trainings, combined with online resources, Shape the Sky provides the community with the tools needed to raise digitally responsible citizens. The goal of this training session is to help adults educate and provide guidance for youth to create a digitally responsible culture among today's digital youth. This half-day session will identify categories of social networking that professionals should be aware of and looking for with youth.

Noon – 1 p.m. Lunch

1 p.m. – 4 p.m. CWRC Leadership Academy

Presenter: June Fisher

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Participants will be able to:

- Identify the NASW, ASWB, CSWE, & CSWA Standards for Technology in Social Work Practice
- Recognize how the Standards for Technology are aligned with the Pennsylvania Child Welfare Practice
- Articulate the rationale for an appropriate ethical response to child welfare scenarios
- Develop a plan for incorporating the Standards for Technology into an agency's practice

SUMMARY:

This course provides child welfare leaders with an opportunity to consider their personal and professional values and how they may impact their practice and the practice throughout their agencies. Participants will have the opportunity to review scenarios and consider what would be the best practice ethical response based on information from the NASW, ASWB, CWSE, and CSWA Standards for Technology in Social Work Practice. This workshop is eligible for 3 Continuing Education credit hours and 3 Leadership Academy Certificate hours.
